

SOCIETY

ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. Otto Metchan of Portland, who has been the house guest of Mrs. John Minto for a week returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Spencer has as her house guests her sister, Miss Florence Aitken and Mrs. J. C. Aitken of Roseburg.

The members of the Amicus club were recently entertained with an enjoyable informal afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Jesse Campbell. Late in the afternoon the hostess served dainty refreshments. Mrs. T. H. Galloway was an additional guest.

Mrs. George Waters entertained as her week-end guest Miss Leon Case Bier, dramatic editor of the Portland Oregonian.

Mrs. Paul Hauser entertained with an informal sewing Friday afternoon. About ten matrons of the hostess' Kensington club were guests. Yellow blossoms of the spring time were used about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus were hosts for a five hundred party at their apartment in the "Court" Friday evening in celebration of the first anniversary of their wedding.

The rooms were effectively adorned with lilacs and greens. Players circled three tables of the game, and Mrs. R. E. Ringo was awarded the high score honor.

Mrs. Paulus was assisted in the serving by her sister, Mrs. Clarence Hartley.

Those playing were, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ringo, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hibler, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paulus, Dr. and Mrs. C. Hartley, Miss Emily Phillips, Miss Beolie Brooker and Robert La Rue.

About sixteen matrons of the Leisure Hour club were the guests of Mrs.

George G. Brown and Mrs. D. W. Mathews at the residence of the former on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. M. L. Meyers and Mrs. A. L. Brown were asked as additional guests.

On Sunday afternoon the marriage of Miss Vera V. Zosel and Cecil C. McDonald took place at the home of the bride's parents 210 Mission street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. T. Porter of the First Christian church. Only relatives and a few friends were in attendance. The young couple will leave Tuesday for Mr. McDonald's home in Mabton, Wn.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Zosel, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Neuman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruble, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Zosel, Mr. and Mrs. William McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fetter, Miss Pearl and Master Robert Neuman and the Misses Maude, Vera and Jean McDaniel.

Miss Marie Breitenstein went to Portland Sunday to attend the funeral of Miss Gussie Thomas, which will take place today. Miss Thomas formerly lived in Salem and had a wide circle of friends in the high school set, with whom she was very popular.

Mrs. Norma Leffingwell was the recipient of a delightful surprise shower given by the matrons of the Calico club Saturday evening.

The affair was planned as a pre-nuptial attention to Mrs. Leffingwell, whose marriage to George E. Terwilliger will take place Thursday.

About seventy-five friends gathered for the evening and the honor guest was showered with pretty gifts.

A score or more members of the La Ara club and several of their friends enjoyed an Easter picnic in Kingwood park Sunday.

The Biggest Event of the Spring Season

Silk Week at

Barned Cash Store
E. J. Barnes, Prop.

This is a wonderful Silk Season and we have gone into them very heavy. If you have ever had a longing for the silks of grandmother's days, that longing may be more than gratified in these rich designs and qualities. You should, by all means, see the countless numbers of Plain and Fancy Novelty Silks on display in our windows and on our counters during this week--Silks that fairly sparkle with originality. Most of these were bought before the sharp advance prices went into effect, therefore you will find our prices as attractive as the Silks themselves--nowhere to be duplicated. The following are a few of the important ones:

- Chiffon Taffetas—Changeable and all new spring shades, 36 inches wide, yard $1.40, $1.50, $1.65, $1.75
- Black Chiffon Taffeta—Very fine, 36 to 40 inches wide, at yard, $1.25, $1.45, $1.50, $1.65, $1.75, $1.85, $2.00
- Novelties—Beautiful line for Waists and Dresses, 24 to 27 inches wide, at yard $1.00
- Novelty Stripe, Plaid and Check Chiffon Taffetas, 36 inches wide, $1.15, $1.25, $1.45, $1.65, $1.75, $1.95
- Chesney Silks—Taffetas and Shower-proof Fenlands, in beautiful combinations, 40 inches wide, $1.75, $2.25
- Skinner's Silks and Satins in plain colors and stripes.
- Pretty Faille Silks—Messalines and Crepe de Chines.
- Tub Silks and Tub Crepe de Chines in an almost endless variety with a plentiful assortment of handsome stripe combinations, 32 to 36 inches, yard, $1.00, $1.15, $1.25, $1.50, $1.65
- Pongee Silks—Each quality a big value and many of them including Striped Pongees, 33 and 34 inches wide, yard 50c, 60c, 65c, 75c, 90c, $1.00, $1.15, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00.
- Silk and Wool Poppins—Nearly every shade shown in these qualities, 40 in. wide, $1.15, $1.50, $1.65 and $2.25.

There are many other Silks not mentioned here. Silks more beautiful, more charming and in more variety than this silk store has ever shown.

Princess Egahtahyen. Egahtahyen is the name by which Mrs. O. J. Kellogg, an Oneida princess, is fondly called by the people of her race for whose advancement she is always struggling. She is in Washington, D. C., at present in support of a bill which will be introduced by Senator Lane of Oregon and Senator Hunting of Wisconsin, by which the Indians will be provided with a protected autonomous government.
